

This work of art delves into the interconnected themes of geographic location and experiential storytelling. The Victoria and Alfred Road in Woodstock, Cape Town, serve as the primary visual subject, with the artistic concept drawing inspiration from the "Choose your own adventure" book series. The composition of the piece is comprised of several smaller paintings, which, at first glance, may seem fragmented and disconnected, but upon closer examination, are intricately woven together through cryptic means, serving to enliven the narrative of the work.
