

Artist-Designed Blanket - 'Elula' x Lulama Wolf

R 3,695.65 ex. vat

This blanket was designed by Lulama 'Wolf' Mlambo, a 27-year-old visual artist who lives and works in Johannesburg, South Africa.

'Elula' translated means "The Easy One"

"The idea behind the blanket was to bring a sense of ease into ones existence at any time in their life, to implement rest and motivate that life can be simplified with more introspection, - Lulama Wolf "

A principle theme in Lulama's work is space, spirituality and influences from vernacular architecture. She explores the human condition in extremely imaginative ways creating hyper visualized characters.
