Call for Price

Untitled P0lar0id 1 was shot on 600mm Polaroid film and is available for printing on premium satin paper.

Camille Guerin’s series in foto philosophies is a narration of her duty as a photographer, which she expresses as crucial to many individuals to possess quality photos of their lives to look back on. Guerin’s philosophy and approach to film is grounded in her will for life to be documented in a concrete way, of which Polaroids have truly done her practice justice. The Los-Angeles based photographer immortalizes the special moments of her experiences in 600mm film as she holds dear her purpose to “photograph people as they are and make photos that will be cherished forever”.
