

---

The Guardian

R 56,270.00 ex. vat

The Guardian explores the relationship between man and child. The act of carrying the child on his back and wrapping the cloth around his body plays on an image you don't see every day. It intentionally evokes the perception of masculinity and how it's understood in today's society. The Guardian presents an intermediary where the private self and the public self-coexist.

Frame	None
Edition Size	15
Medium	Digital Print on Fine Art Tecco Paper
Location	Harare, Zimbabwe
Height	118.00 cm
Width	84.00 cm
Artist	Tamary Kudita
Year	2022

