

Sight Unseen

R 46,850.00 ex. vat

This piece, was inspired by a call to reimagine Dutch painter, Rembrandt's painting titled Saskia as Flora. This image sparked a series celebrating African heritage. Using photography, I empower my subjects, rejecting stereotypical portrayals. Here, tradition and modernity coexist, with the bold sitter wielding a sweeper as a symbol of strength, not servitude.

Frame	None
Edition Size	20
Medium	Digital Print on Tecco Fine Art Paper
Location	Harare, Zimbabwe
Height	118.00 cm
Width	78.00 cm
Artist	Tamary Kudita
Year	2019

