Johannesburg-based Illustrator and Pattern designer Zinhle Sithebe also known by her artist name is a creative force inspired by her rich Zulu heritage, blackness, love for fashion themes around women and individuality. Through her vibrant and expressive patterns and illustrations, she captures the essence of modern South Africa, celebrating the diversity of its people while emphasising self-love and affirmations. Zinhle's remarkable talent has not only garnered attention but has also led her to collaborate with prominent brands such as L'Occitane, Coca Cola, Facebook Africa and Mr Price Home, where she skillfully incorporated her unique and bold vision into their artistic realms. The figures she draws and patterns she creates are all strong, vibrant, bold, sure, unapologetic and represent how Zinhle wants to show up in the world. This is how she wants people who view her work to feel too. A celebration of individuality, empowerment and the magic in between.
