Best known as the P0lar0id Princ3ss, Camille Guerin is a Polaroid photographer based in Los Angeles, California. Her practice explores the symbolic beauty, fragility, and physicality of flora through 600mm film, shot in monochrome. The P0lar0id Princ3ss captures the candid and staged moments of the people around her, such that her 'decisive moments' create a snapshot into the romantic and visually aesthete personalities of her contemporaries.
