"Green Market is one of the most unique bazaars since almost all the minor ethnicities of Kazakhstan can be found here selling their significant products and foods. Like Koreans selling salads, tofu, kimchi, and chimchi; Ukrainians selling some dried flowers and tree sticks, Tajiks and Uzbeks selling their spices, rice, fruits and vegetables, Caucasians selling their significant cheese and bread. Actually a lot of things can be found in Green Market, but most important here is how diversity works in unity." - Balnura N
