

Sacrificed Kipchak 1

R 4,440.00 ex. vat

"Didggori Memorial was built after battle where Davit the Builder, King of Georgia, won Seljuks and was able to save and unify Georgia. He did it with the help of kipchaks, that he recruited. There were approximately 30,000 of them and yet there is no information about them helping Davit on the memorial itself. As a person who is connected to the kipchaks, I wanted to give them some credit, because their sacrifice gave Georgia strength and an independent future from the Seljuks." - Balnura N
