Making Space (queen of interdimensionality)

(2022)

Acrylic and seawater on canvas

30 x 15 inches

A dream of a portal, an aleph.
From within to without.
Observation is the basis of the universe –
And, of consciousness;
To know thyself is to know truth.

Connection with nature inspires creativity,
arouses inner vision, sparks imagination,
is itself a conduit to free thought,
an opening to expansiveness.

Are we simply the universe observing itself?
