

With Bated Breath

R 7,300.00 ex. vat

Acrylics on canvas, unframed, unstretched. Ships in a tube. Can be framed or attached directly to wall with magnets. This work was inspired by my personal sense of loss of belonging. I utilise broken pattern as a way to visually explore instability, uncertainty and the ongoing process of finding a place to "belong". By focusing on painting itself, where "loss" is inherently part of the painting process, this painting highlights the importance of process and time.
