

Abstract Experience

R 10,000.00 ex.
vat

The artwork was inspired by an occasion at a soup kitchen in Braamfontein, Johannesburg, South Africa. The artist was in a queue waiting for his turn, but a hobo called him to the front because he said he didn't look like the soup kitchen type. Afterwards, the artist experienced a hallucinogenic episode without taking any drugs, as he was eating his soup. The experience inspired him to go back home and interpret it visually.

Medium	Mixed Media
Height	104.00 cm
Width	82.00 cm
Artist	Bhele Gallery

