Nomandla_mother Mother of strength

R 3,200.00 ex. vat

Nomandla: Mother of Strength powerfully encapsulates the essence of resilience and determination through the figure of a tribal African woman climbing a mountain. Her posture is one of unwavering strength as she ascends the rugged terrain, embodying both the physical and metaphorical journey of overcoming obstacles. The mountain looms large, representing the challenges and hardships that many face, yet she approaches it with a spirit of defiance and grace

In Nomandla: Mother of Strength, the mountain not only symbolizes external challenges but also internal struggles, illustrating the broader themes of resilience within the African experience. This artwork is a celebration of the indomitable spirit of women, especially those who rise against adversity, nurturing their families and communities through their tenacity and courage.
