

Bound and becoming

R 4,500.00 ex. vat

A figure sits cross-legged, bathed in shades of electric blue, their form both solid and dissolving into the canvas. Stripes of yellow and black wrap around their chest resembling a fractured uniform or a sacred marking, worn yet resilient. Their hands are raised in quiet strength, while shadows and textures creep along the edges, blending the figure with the stormy background. Flecks of green drip like remnants of nature reclaiming space. A meditation on restriction and release, struggle and transcendence
