

Camaraderie point of view 3

R 32,500.00

A tender moment with a young boy, simply adorned in a pullover and beanie. The choice of these classic garments speaks to a foundational style that transcends time. Even in its simplicity, this portrayal hints at the enduring appeal of comfortable and practical clothing, styles that have been passed down through generations and continue to find relevance in modern wardrobes. The subtle nod to heritage in this youthful figure sets the stage for exploring fashion's cyclical nature.

Medium	Acrylic on Canvas
Location	Johannesburg, South Africa
Height	123.00 cm
Width	93.00 cm
Artist	Siphamandla Ex
Year	2025

