

THE CRUCIFIX

R 87,941.65

Artwork Details:

"Crucifix on love and of love to be the sacrifice and to show all-rounded love as a central idea. In time the counting, being counted, starting from the apple all the time passing, aging, and like. This piece is also from the eve and me series. In this work I used materials attached to me emotionally and nostalgically as a metaphor elements like, clock, electric meter to show in this passing time and counting reality the things that all most valuable the things we can't measure or count the feeling, the love, as the women crucified in the middle."
