

Kurhula, 2025

R 10,000.00

Kurhula is a photographic work that merges performance and textile art, depicting a figure adorned with a handwoven red mask and horn-like headpiece. Through this visual language, the artist explores identity, transformation, and the tension between concealment and self-expression, using the photograph as both documentation and extension of sculptural form.

Frame	None
Medium	Photography
Location	Pretoria, South Africa
Height	74.60 cm
Width	42.00 cm
Artist	Quinton Mawila
Year	2025

