

What is Left to Do?

R 22,500.00

What Is Left to Do?

This piece explores the quiet power of small gestures, those seemingly fleeting interactions that, over time, reveal themselves to be life-shaping.

Drawing from a personal reflection, the work speaks to the idea that fragments of ourselves remain in everyone we encounter. Whether through a kind word, a thoughtful gesture, or simply being present, we leave traces that continue to grow long after the moment has passed.

Frame	None
Medium	Paper on paper
Location	Lagos, Nigeria
Height	61.00 cm
Width	51.00 cm
Artist	Lawrence Meju
Year	2022

