

Ada the soul of the pearl

R 52,092.00

This painting depicts a woman with dark skin and braided hair, wearing a seashell-like earring and surrounded by an arrangement of shells, coral, and floral elements. Her expression is calm and direct, with glossy lips and a strong gaze. The background blends soft pastel tones, pinks, yellows, grays, and blues, creating an oceanic and organic atmosphere. The overall composition merges natural textures, such as coral and seashells, with the human figure, giving the image a refined, detailed, and layered visual effect.
