

Clair de lune

R 26,236.00

This artwork, titled Claire de lune (2025) by Rosalie Boka, depicts a large tree silhouetted against a glowing full moon. The intricate branches and layered foliage form a delicate interplay of shadow and light, rendered in deep shades of indigo and violet with touches of warm gold radiating from the center. The composition evokes both serenity and introspection, suggesting themes of connection between nature and spirit. The moon's luminous presence framed by the tree's silhouette creates a meditative balance between stillness and quiet energy, reflecting Boka's sensitivity to light, rhythm, and the poetry of the natural world.
