Allison Klein, The Believer I, Mixed media with Cyanotype, 60 x 42cm, Ed 1 of 1, 2025, Framed

In this body of work, I’m attempting to find meaning in a world filled with conflicting messages. I mixed Renaissance imagery with modern graffiti, sacred symbols with punk energy, and official signs with chaotic scribbles.

Using layered printing techniques, I create visual puzzles that help me to ask questions such as “do we choose the systems that control us” and “does my cultural background make these acceptable”?
