

Invisible

R 370.41

As a young Black artist residing in Johannesburg and navigating the world as a deaf individual, my work explores the intersection of identity, heritage, and contemporary experience through the medium of printmaking, specifically lino and silk screen techniques. My self-portraits serve as a canvas for introspection, revealing layers of cultural narrative and personal symbolism.

Frame	None
Medium	Linocut
Location	Newtown, Johannesburg, South Africa
Height	27.00 cm
Width	19.00 cm
Artist	Thabang Leboa
Year	2025

