

The Strategic Radicals Manifesto English

R 500.00 ex. vat

The manifesto text is overlaid on a large, white, stylized graphic of a person with arms and legs outstretched, resembling a stick figure or a person in a dynamic pose. The background is a solid light yellow color.

The strategic radicals manifesto

We need a new software for processing this thing we call the future.
The old methods have failed us.

"We" doesn't work.

We will invent a new grammar.
Comprised of verbs only.

Artistic creation & artists' time will be respected and compensated as such.
Institutions do not exist in a disconnected state any more.
We don't do disciplines. Art is undisciplined.
Engagement does not equal showing face at an exhibition opening.

Your empathy is dead.
Solidarity rules. The present system will fall.
But in the time it takes to crumble,
we will be radically engaged.

We must accelerate.

We preach to the converted, sure.
And we learn from the skeptical and the non-believers.

We don't play safe.
The revolution will be anonymous but also without hierarchy.

It will look great.
Will it be a brand?

WE'RE RADICAL AND STRATEGIC.
OR RADICALLY STRATEGIC.
OR STRATEGIC RADICALS.

When our tyre shop of radicalism doesn't sell that well,
we're going to puncture some.

Compiled in Windhoek, 30.1.18, under a full moon.

The strategic radicals manifesto.

An exclusive range of silk-screen prints, based on the strategic radicals' manifesto.

English edition: metallic shimmering green text on lime background, edition of 100.

Designed by Karl-Heinz Best of mind the gap! design, Frankfurt.

Based on the heraldic animal of the manifesto, created by Emeka Alams. Printed by Renate Vogl, Studio für Serigrafie, Offenbach.

Available languages: English, French, Turkish, Yoruba, Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic – more to follow.

Medium	Silkscreen
Height	60.00 cm
Artist	The Strategic Radicals
Year	2018

